6) Describe the Issuer's Business, Products and Services

Describe the issuer's business so a potential investor can clearly understand the company. In answering this item, please include the following:

A. a description of the issuer's business operations;

CTM

CTM Media Group, Inc. ("CTM") develops and distributes print based advertising and information in targeted tourist markets. Advertisers include entertainment venues, tourist attractions, and cultural sites as well as their related service providers including dining, lodging, and transport services. CTM leverages its regional network of more than 11,200 proprietary brochure display stations to distribute printed brochures, magazines and rack cards to the traveling public.

CTM also develops and distributes digital advertising and information through its affiliate Etractions Inc., through its website, ettractions.com and its ExploreBoard Network of inter-active touch screen kiosks throughout its market areas.

CTM is headquartered at 11 Largo Drive South, Stamford, Connecticut. As of April 30, 2014, CTM had 159 employees, including 149 full time and 10 part time.

CTM was an independent brochure distribution company until it was purchased by IDT Corporation ("IDT") in June 2000. At that time, CTM's primary business centered on the distribution of brochures promoting Broadway shows within the greater New York City metropolitan area. Additional territories included Boston and other locations in New England, Toronto, Ottawa, Philadelphia, Southeast Florida and Ohio. In September 2009, CTM Media Group, Inc. was included in the spinoff of its parent company, CTM Media Holdings Inc. (the "Company") from IDT, which now operates as a separate company.

CTM has grown both geographically and by developing related lines of business. Geographic growth had been driven both by organic expansion to new territories and through selective purchases of regional businesses.

CTM's client base includes advertisers in 28 states and provinces in the United States and Ontario, Canada. Its distribution territory in the United States includes the Northeast, Mid-Atlantic and Midwestern states, as well as Southeast Florida. CTM is a brochure distribution market leader in each of the following greater metro areas: New York City, Boston, Toronto, Ottawa, Miami, Ft. Lauderdale, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis/St. Paul, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Milwaukee, and Cleveland.

Throughout its operating region, CTM operates four integrated and complimentary business lines: Brochure Distribution, Publishing, RightCardTM and Digital Distribution.

Brochure Distribution

CTM distributes client brochures through its network of more than 11,200 strategically located display stations. Brochure distribution is CTM's largest line of business generating approximately 80% and 81% of CTM's revenues in the three months and six months ended April 30, 2014, compared to 82% and 83% of CTM's revenues in the three months and six months ended April 30, 2013, respectively.

CTM's extensive distribution and display station network is the key value driver and differentiator in the CTM's distribution line of business. The large quantity and diversity of its display station locations allows CTM to segment its visitor audience and tailor targeted marketing programs for its clients. Locations are typically hosted within facilities serving the travel, tourism and entertainment industry, including hotels and other lodgings, corporate and community venues, transportation terminals and hubs, tourist attractions and entertainment venues. CTM also has agreements with public transportation authorities, business improvement districts, public tourism authorities and high volume retail chains to host a small percentage of its brochure display stations.

CTM has developed strong relationships with its display station hosts and its regional client advertisers. These relationships constitute a significant barrier to entry that CTM believes provides it with a competitive advantage over new entrants into the industry or movement by other industry participants into certain metropolitan markets.

As of April 30, 2014, CTM remained one of the largest travel and tourism brochure display companies in the Eastern and Midwestern United States, and the second largest nationally. Privately held Certified Folder Display ("Certified") is the national market leader with over 21,000 display station locations, primarily in the Western United States.

Certified's key metropolitan areas include San Francisco, Seattle, Los Angeles, Phoenix and Las Vegas. An estimated 20 to 30 other distribution companies competing from smaller regional bases comprise the remainder of the brochure distribution and display industry.

Publishing

CTM publishes maps with integrated display advertising and identified tourist locations. Current maps cover key metropolitan areas within CTM's territory including Boston/New England, Chicago, Kansas City, Minneapolis/St. Paul, New York City, Philadelphia, Southeast Florida, St. Louis, and Toronto. Publishing accounted for approximately 4% and 4% of CTM's revenues in both years for the three month and six month periods ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, respectively.

RightCard™

CTM designs and prints the RightCard™ – pocket-sized cards in a consistent format distributed through a network of specialized display stations in high-traffic areas. The RightCard™ content format can include a discount or value offer, map and contact information. The RightCard™ program contributed approximately 3% and 3% of CTM's revenues in both years for the three month and six month periods ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013.

Digital Distribution

CTM's digital marketing platform, offered under CTM's affiliate, Etractions, Inc., continued its strong growth in the first half of fiscal 2014. The Etractions Digital Distribution program offers CTM's customers a multi-channel marketing platform that includes the web, mobile internet and the ExploreBoard interactive touch screens. Total revenue from digital marketing programs increased to $483,000 and $931,000 in the three months and six months ended April 30, 2014 from $384,000 and $731,000 in the three months and six months ended April 30, 2013, respectively. Digital distribution revenues accounted for approximately 12% and 11% of CTM's revenues in the three months and six months ended April 30, 2014 compared to 10% and 9% of CTM's revenues in the three months and six months ended April 30, 2013.

The increase in digital revenue was primarily due to the placement of 281 Etractions ExploreBoard interactive touch screens during the period from fiscal 2012 through the six months ended April 30, 2014. Additional advertisers, more advertising opportunities and increased traffic were also contributing factors to the growth in revenue in CTM's digital distribution business. Web and mobile traffic reached a level of approximately 100,000 monthly visitors in the peak spring and summer travel months during the fiscal year ended October 31, 2013.

Design & Print

CTM leveraged its in-house design team and large print volumes to provide clients with cost-effective custom design and print referral services. Design & Print Services contributed approximately 2% to CTM's revenues in both years for the three month periods ended April 30, 2014 and 2013 and 1% for the six month periods ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, respectively. CTM provides Print Services to its clients by way of referral of its clients to outside printers and earns a referral fee for this service.

IDW

Idea and Design Works, LLC ("IDW") is a pre-eminent independent comic book publisher, boasting such high-profile titles as G.I. Joe, Locke and Key, Star Trek, The Transformers, True Blood, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, My Little Pony, Dungeons & Dragons, Judge Dredd, Magic: The Gathering, Powerpuff Girls, and Godzilla. IDW is also the home to the Library of American Comics imprint, which publishes classic comic strip reprints, Yoe! Books, a partnership with Yoe! Studio and the multiple award-winning Artist's Edition imprint.

In 1999, four entertainment executives and artists established IDW as a creative service company providing artwork and graphic design to entertainment companies. In 2001, IDW formed its publishing division, IDW Publishing, which initially focused on producing a small number of high-quality publications and has since grown into a fully staffed publishing company. In June 2007, a subsidiary of IDT purchased a 53% interest in IDW. Founders of IDW, including Ted Adams, its current CEO, retained the remaining ownership interests in IDW. In November 2009, the Company's subsidiary purchased an additional 23.335% interest in IDW for a purchase price of $414,000 in cash. As a result of the transaction, the Company's subsidiary owns a 76.665% interest in IDW.

IDW has established itself as a significant player in the comic book and graphic novel marketplace. IDW is the 4th largest publisher and in calendar 2013 had a market share of approximately 6.5%. IDW has been named Publisher of the Year five times by Diamond Comic Distributors, Inc. IDW titles have won 25 Eisner and Harvey Awards and have been on the New York Times bestseller list more than 80 times.

IDW's comic book and trade paperback print publications are distributed through three channels: (i) to comic book specialty stores on a non-returnable basis (the "direct market") (ii) to traditional retail outlets, including bookstores and mass market stores, on a returnable basis (the "non-direct market") and (iii) to ebook distributors ("digital publishing"). In addition, IDW provides clients with custom comic books and artwork/graphic design services ("creative services").

In the three months ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, the direct market as a percentage of IDW's revenue accounted for 57% and 55%, and 57 % and 58% in the six months ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, respectively. The non-direct market accounted for 24% and 24% in the three months ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, and 23% and 23% in the six months ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, respectively. Digital publishing accounted for 11% and 10% in the three months ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013 and 10% and 10% in the six months ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, respectively. Other publishing revenue, which includes new product launches and specialty sales, accounted for 2% and 5% in the three months ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, and 4% and 3% in the six months ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, respectively. IDW's other sources of revenue include direct to consumer sales, licensing and royalty revenue, which accounted for 6% and 6% of IDW's revenues in the three months ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, and 5% and 6% in the six months ended April 30, 2014 and April 30, 2013, respectively. IDW's primary customer is Diamond Comic Distributors, Inc. ("Diamond"), an unaffiliated entity that handles the vast majority of all comic publishers' direct market distribution. Diamond purchases IDW's publications and subsequently sells them to both the direct and non-direct markets. Retail stores are also indirect IDW customers.

IDW's business cycle is driven by its publishing schedule and movie release dates (of movies for which IDW publishes comic books and graphic novels), which are set by third party studios.

In an effort to increase availability of versions of its content at retail outlets, IDW has entered into a number of digital distribution agreements, and IDW's publications are currently available for purchase via handheld devices, including iPhones, iPod Touch, iPad, Amazon Kindle, Nokia, Kobo Arc, Blackberry and Google Android devices. IDW titles are also available direct-to-desktop via several websites.

IDW faces significant competition from other publishers such as Marvel Comics, DC Comics and Dark Horse Comics, many of which are substantially larger than IDW and have much greater resources than IDW.

As a diverse publisher that produces comics/graphic novels based on a variety of source material, including movies, IDW's results are affected by the number of blockbuster movies that are released. When IDW is able to publish material based on a movie that has a large marketing campaign behind it and that ultimately finds a large public audience, IDW is able to sell more comics/graphic novels. Generally, a larger audience for the underlying source material (i.e. movies) generates a larger audience for IDW's comics/graphic novels.

In the three months ended April 30, 2014 and 2013, IDW generated net revenues of $4,861,000 and $6,353,000 and operating income of $363,000 and $1,631,000, respectively. In the six months ended April 30, 2014 and 2013, IDW generated net revenues of $11,376,000 and $11,535,000 and operating income of $1,823,000 and $2,687,000, respectively.
